

WHICH TEST IS BEST? Trying to Decide on the ACT OR SAT? Want to save time and money?

Taking the Princeton Review PRACTICE HYBRID ACT/SAT Assessment test on Saturday, January 29th from 9:00am – 1:00pm at Bellevue High School Can Help!

THE WHAT: The opportunity to take this hybrid ACT/SAT assessment test will give students an idea of how they would score on the ACT and SAT tests, and whether or not they should consider one over the other. This could help cut down on possible unnecessary testing and test fees.

This 4-hour test consists of timed sections covering English, reading, writing, science, math and essay writing.

There will be a follow up meeting on Tuesday, February 15th from 6:30-8:00pm with Princeton Review administrators to review test results and understand what scores mean.

THE WHO: Katie Konrad Moore with Collegwise will administer and coordinate the test which is provided by the Princeton Review, a reputable college prep company.

This is great timing to take this test following the Bellevue School District College Conference that is scheduled on January 26 and January 27!

Testing will begin promptly at 9:00am, so please arrive no later than 8:45 for check-in. Students need to bring several number two pencils and a calculator. It is also suggested to bring a water bottle and light snack.

THE WHERE: Bellevue High School, 10416 Wolverine Way SE, Bellevue, WA.

THE COST: $30/per person.

IMPORTANT: Pre-registration is REQUIRED by Monday, January 24th. Registration forms are available in the Counseling Office or can be downloaded from the BHS school website.

Checks and Registration forms must be turned into the labeled mailbox located on the counter in the BHS Activities Office. Make checks payable to BHS PTSA Class of 2012.
